

DICK PIO'S THE MAKINGS OF a CLAMSHELL BOX

Sunday, December 4, 2011

9:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Michael Punke's Studio
17155 Newhope Ave Suite I
Fountain Valley, CA 92708

Let your creativity soar!

What to do with those special artist books, with those delicate bindings you've made, received, accumulated and want to protect? Spend the first Sunday in December with Dick Pio and you'll find solutions to preserving your treasures so they maintain their pristine condition over time.

What to expect? In a relaxed classroom environment, Dick will be guiding students through the process using the basic bookmaking supplies. Along with the unexpected, students captivated by Dick's enthusiasm for teaching and his organized approach will learn the techniques of making a 5 3/4" x 8 3/4" clamshell box. These dimensions are based on a book made from a standard 8 1/2 x 11" paper). Black book cloth will be provided by Dick.

About the Artist: Judging a book by its cover, Dick Pio makes books like James Joyce writes literature. Dick, a Southern California artist, is a master bookmaker who embraces outstanding credentials and hardly needs an introduction. Dick teaches classes at conferences for SFC and Regional Groups and has quite the following.

He is known for his ability to create beautiful books and his teaching skills are highly regarded. Dick has a casual and organized teaching style that makes box construction fun.

This rare one day workshop with Dick Pio promises to be among those classes you will most remember!
